

INTRODUCTION TO

When disasters strike, the Church sets the standard For giving, loving and caring that FEMA, The American Red Cross and emergency management can't match.

MFES has a fund-raising opportunity that will reward your organization financially, as well as rewarding your church by having each family member prepared for emergencies and disasters. Once your members themselves are prepared, they then can help others by introducing our emergency services to their families and friends throughout the community and around the country.

MFES is looking for non-profit organizations that are looking for a great opportunity to help families in their organization and community. We are specifically looking for organizations that will sponsor our kids and our senior citizens. Organizations that join MFES will be compensated by sharing 30% of the business points you raise from getting businesses, individuals, foundations and your local city governments to use 72 Hour Survival Kits. Each time your organizations assists us in signing up another organization, they will receive 15% of the business volume that the new organization brings in.
